

LITTLE RABBIT BIO

Kat Mear, Kim Wheeler and Pete Fidler make up Little Rabbit, originally getting together with a passion to play an unconventional mixture of Bluegrass, Pop, Old Time and Americana musical styles.

Their music is a mixture of traditional songs and tunes, and original compositions that are always crowd pleasers. Kat, Kim and Pete are all long standing Old Timey and Americana enthusiasts; and it shows.

Note on 14th Sept 2015: The new CD, titled Watching Over Joan is now in the final stages of production.

The Members

Kat has been holding a fiddle almost since she could walk, and it shows in her fantastic energetic playing, and gorgeous singing voice. Together with Kim, the band features amazing harmonies and lively rhythms.

Kim says she decided to buy a bass because she had purchased a large car and wanted an instrument sized to match. That might not be completely accurate - because she also has a passion for playing that makes the upright bass seem a natural choice.

Pete Fidler has mastered dobro and guitar bringing delicious picking' solos and improvisations to the musical mix, obviously in defiance of his name which foretold another musical direction. Pete journeyed through electric guitar and banjo before finding his true musical home.

Other Info & History

Historically and currently the members of Little Rabbit have been part of bluegrass bands Uncle Bill and Bluestone Junction, Cash Savage & the Last Drinks, Bill Jackson, the Dan Hick inspired Innocent Bystanders, and are regular and occasional players with Mustered Courage, Peter Rowan, Freya Hollick, Damien Howard and Pete Denahy

Together they have played at National Folk Festival, Jamgrass, Newstead Folk Festival, Maldon Folk Festival, Patchewollock Folk Festival, Burringa Gallery, Mountaingrass, Flying Saucer Club, regulars at the Spotted Mallard & Lomond Hotel. Through these and their recent international supports including Chris Henry & the Hardcore Grass and the Whitetop Mountaineers, drawing enthusiastic audiences, are gaining a reputation as one of Australia's leading Americana/Old Time bands.
